LUXURY ALWAYS STARTS WITH THE RAW MATERIALS

SUPIMA® is globally regarded as the finest cotton available and it makes up less than 1% of the US cotton production. This extra long staple cotton is prized for its softness, color retention and strength and is famously used by some of the world's leading fashion brands.

DON'T JUST TELL US, PROVE IT

SUPIMA® molecularly traces the natural fiber itself and verifies its place of origin. In order to execute this the SUPIMA® organization has partnered with Oritain, a global leader in forensic science.
